SCC at Maria Regina

Please consider sharing the Sunday readings for the upcoming Sunday at home with your family. It would only take one hour to share with each other on how God is working in your life. We are inviting you to try it twice a month. We will be publishing sample questions in the Bulletin to help you. These questions would pertain to the readings for the upcoming Sunday. We invite you to share by using these questions and the Sunday readings at home to enrich your journey with God. We also have extra Misselettes available for you to use. They are in the Sacristy.

After sharing at home for a while, you may want to consider sharing with others such as friends, other family members or neighbors. Please let me know if you would be interested.
