Please consider sharing the Sunday readings for the upcoming Sunday at home with your family. It would only take one hour to share with each other on how God is working in your life. We are inviting you to try it twice a month. We will be publishing sample questions in the Bulletin to help you. These questions would pertain to the readings for the upcoming Sunday. We invite you to share by using these questions and the Sunday readings at home to enrich your journey with God. We also have extra Misselettes available for you to use. They are in the Sacristy.

After sharing at home for a while, you may want to consider sharing with others such as friends, other family members or neighbors. Please let me know if you would be interested.

Fr. Peter and Kathy Ryan are offering movie nights during the summer. Watching movies can be an intensely focused experience. In just an hour and a half you can travel a wide range of territory. We will travel with characters that struggle with life's challenges but each one taking us into the depth of the heart of God.

Summer is a good time to reflect on our experience of God and through four movies we will explore where we find our spiritual life deepening.

The remaining movie is:

Aug. 11—The Pursuit of Happiness

Sign up for these movies with Kathy Ryan 795-7478. We will view them in the air conditioned St. Michael's Room 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm.
